Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 11, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

All these years of loyalty, commitment and especially love have created this very special connection between our hearts and produced this extraordinary heavenly manna. These numerous messages are a precious asset to our Mission; the future will justify these words, you can be sure. Do our abhyasis truly realise the uniqueness of this way! Its action takes place in all subtlety and transforms human beings, for good reason. Their perceptions are refined and confirm the potential that dwells within them. The practice, the books, and then these messages, have already yielded very convincing results. They will be perfectly suited for the life of the future when this world will experience unprecedented transformations, which will elevate humanity to a higher level of consciousness.

This will include a general refinement, less violence, less endless hatred and less deleterious activity. Every incarnation prepares another; what will be in the next ones, or the next one, as the case may be? We will not go into detail, each person's life is unique and conforms with their destiny. This framework is developed according to divine imperatives, within the context, so well orchestrated, of humanity as a whole.

Faith and surrender are necessary, we can only repeat it and ensure that through this the best comes to fruition for all our brothers and sisters. Such is the purpose of our unceasing actions.
