Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, May 16, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Let your heart drink at the divine source, it longs only for this. It is so good for it, in these rare moments, to make the most of a special transmission capable of fostering such exchanges. These messages accompany many of our brothers and sisters in their quest for the Divine, and we make this important element available to them. The practice is a whole, making the most of the opportunities it offers is a precious asset. Each of our abhyasis assimilates what we offer at their discretion, according to their personal aspiration to progress towards the Ultimate goal. Within oneself is the wonder, the potential of each one; nothing can be forced, only adapted to the need of the seeker. The practice of Sahaj Marg promises results and they are there, truly, you can believe it.

A call is always heard and we answer it beyond what is expected.

Nothing is ever simple. A serious commitment is necessary in this very special approach where refined work leads to a satisfying state of consciousness. Each one acts as he or she pleases, no one is forced, only supported and encouraged to continue.

In the end is the treasure, the reward one might say. This progress in hearts leads us to consider this work as essential to all our aspirants, convinced or not of such an approach. It is in God's hands and the hands of the Masters who are so greatly invested in this unparalleled path. Very special blessings to all our brothers and sisters.
