Wednesday, September 1, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

All is not finished, my child, you will still take down beautiful messages; our scribe has not retired. It is actually necessary, through them, to kindle your inner fire. Do not weaken, be vigilant, be centred the way we mean it. Advance in life while living normally but remaining connected to the main thing: the heart of the heart which is inside you and which holds the key to everything."

Babuji