Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, May 23, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

The Mission is growing, and it will continue to do so for a very long time, until it has reached its point of strength, its real objective which will be revealed over the course of time. May these comments arouse the attention of our brothers and sisters and their motivation to act with determination and utmost commitment, if such is not currently the case. They should rest assured that they will not regret it. Sahaj Marg, in its apparent simplicity, is rich in multiple actions. Everything is done very subtly in the silence of the heart where the best takes place. There lies the mystery, the strong point of this method: no recitations, no chants, no great rituals, but you can be sure the best is accomplished.

We repeat ourselves, but this is sometimes necessary. Human beings need to be reassured, supported and strengthened in their journey and in the unfolding of their lives. Things do not always go as planned. The Masters themselves have to undergo many trials and accept what fate holds for them at all levels. They may sometimes have to change their plans in the face of events. Such is life. Nevertheless, that which must happen does occur, especially with respect to important events. Being connected to the living Master through the heart — sincerely, totally — is equivalent to being connected with all the Masters. They follow and truly support him in his action, since it is inspired by the strength of our own action and, moreover, by the strength of our love for him and for the whole Mission. This Mission is growing, and we rejoice in that. We have enough strength and love to support him always, and for the best. Special blessings.
