Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 3, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Seeing only the beautiful, the good, is to contribute in some way to the elevation of humankind. On this point, there is much to do to improve oneself – such is the challenge of a life. This life is not easy for anyone. More or less laden with trials, it provides the means to progress and move forward in this quest for the Divine, so essential to each incarnate being. Becoming aware of this fact already shows a certain wisdom. So much time is lost in pointless experiences that leave aside what is most important in this initiatory journey.

Understanding its meaning, and working to perfect what must be perfected, allows the best in every human being to emerge.

It takes time and many trials to understand the essential, the real potential existing in oneself and accessible when mind and heart unite to arrive at the best possible. An incarnation is short in the face of Eternity, a mere page of a book holding the secret of the entity, in its initiatory journey. This aspect of life is little known, yet it is so important to know it and to act accordingly. To follow a spiritual path denotes a true wisdom, innate and having already marked previous lives. This initiatory journey is decisive in more than one way. The great book of life gathers that which ensues from it and which constitutes the spiritual identity of each one.

To all, faith and determination, to move towards the Divine goal.
