Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, June 6, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Everything on Earth is eternally beginning anew; all kingdoms existing here below are subject to this principle; in one way or another they recur indefinitely. Human beings reincarnate; even if this fact is still concealed far too often, it is there, immutable in its action, which is so important and decisive for the destiny of each person. From one lifetime to the next, values are transmitted, an asset that is not insignificant for the progress of the being who is in search of a planned spiritual elevation.

As we have already said many times, following the path of Sahaj Marg saves valuable time. Its action, although simple, takes place where needed in order to achieve the best results. We can only rejoice in this, given the state of humanity as it is today. Everything could progress faster, but this would require making the right decisions and following a path that leads to satisfactory results.

We are not criticising in any way, nothing is perfect, but many efforts could be made that would in some way save this suffering humanity. We help as best we can, you can be sure, but the work is enormous. A day will come when a general awareness will arise that can convince the whole of humanity to work for the good.
