Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, June 15, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

How far we have come with these writings – do our abhyasis realise the importance and benefits of them. Time will justify these words. Everything has to take its place, according to the divine plans. Nothing is done in this realm without the supreme blessing.

Sahaj Marg has come into being for good reasons which will become more and more evident in time, as it is intended. Sahaj Marg in its teaching and practice is within the reach of every sincere soul who is sensitive to this unparalleled transmission. It is an innovation in the field, its action undetectable to a large extent by human beings, yet it acts where it should.

It is a joy to us to see so many beautiful souls filled up by this transmission of divine energy. The ways of God keep their mystery well, it has always been so; how could humans in their smallness realise the power of this action, which seems without limit and without end.

So it appears to us – after so many manifestations of this unparalleled force, how can we not love the creator of all things; everything that emanates from this power is sacred and at the origin of life on this earth and throughout the universe. Our path comes from it, from its unceasing action, from its choices, for the great Beings who represent and glorify it, each in their own way.

The time of apotheosis is not yet here, but it will come in its manifested splendour.
To all our abhyasis, the best there can be.
