Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 17, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Relax, let this vibration of love permeate your whole being, which aspires only to this, to the serenity and well-being it brings. This state of total surrender, necessary here in this special contact, allows us to have an uncommon transmission, which all our faithful abhyasis also know in a different way and are nourished by daily. It is appropriate here to proceed to the goal, as directly as possible, to fully benefit from what is offered – which is very special – in the heart of silence, in this very special organ, since it gives life but also gives what is essential on other subtle planes of spirituality, where everything here is prepared in peace and recollection. There lies the true richness of the being. It cannot really be measured in human terms; everything is accomplished in silence and through the higher will, to respond to a call from the soul that, in this, differs totally from materiality. These messages carry a particular vibration; many of our brothers and sisters perceive it and appreciate these writings. They are intended to remain in our Mission and to give an insight into the possibilities offered to each person in this spiritual path. Blessed are the sincere hearts that leave in their lives an open door to this sacred space connecting them to the hearts of the spiritual Masters of this Mission, a Mission whose magnitude is increasing with the years. This call for the Divine will grow more and more; the spiritual, to a great extent, will save humanity in distress, as humanity currently is. All is well with our brothers and sisters; they are moving forward and preparing for an elsewhere that one day will be appreciated, you can believe it. Blessings to all.
