Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, July 11, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

All these years of contact have created an uncommon bond between our hearts. It is not easy to conclude and stop this ritual, at least regarding these messages. Our dear abhyasis who follow us faithfully will have plenty of time to reread what is written here. Love has guided our action and yours, for the same reasons. Here, this is important. It is not enough to write, to transcribe our words; love – that is decisive in this action. We have selected you, dear scribe, chosen of our hearts, for this historically unprecedented action, as the Master Parthasarathi has often pointed out.

These messages will have an importance you cannot imagine today.

Sahaj Marg has more than one asset, and those will manifest in time, for good reason.

Blessed are the pure in heart, it is said. May all our brothers and sisters reach the most satisfactory level of consciousness; we are making sure it is so.

Endless blessings to all, from our united hearts.
