Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, July 21, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

These many messages, given over the years, pass through your heart as a tribute to this unprecedented achievement. May it remain so in people's memories and venerate the Masters who inspired them. This path of Sahaj Marg is not ordinary, it stands out in more ways than one, and this fact will go down in people's memories and leave a lasting impression. Nothing is in vain in this field, as history shows, with teachings that come from another age and still nourish many souls. This is how life is in this world, and it is not about to change. Our most faithful attention to all our brothers and sisters.
