Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, July 24, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

This birthday celebration for our dearest Parthasarathi is taking place in a state of reflection and remembrance of his very dear Great Person, who served this Mission with all his heart. Each of the Masters brings his personal touch to this way of the heart which is capable of adapting to the needs of current times. Indeed, it is appropriate to comply with such needs, to maintain a satisfactory cohesion across numerous countries, so different from one another. Commitment and interiorisation are, in fact, very supportive elements in such circumstances. This current experience will allow one to draw the necessary conclusions. May this celebration, held in a state of silence and love for the Masters, conclude in happiness and inner peace, leaving aside pointless questionings, to see only the essential, the good produced by this unparalleled spiritual way.

Special blessings to all.
