Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, July 30, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

This heart-to-heart contact translates into a few written lines that give material form to this uncommon occurrence. These messages have made their way into hearts. They were not accepted by all at the beginning, and then they did all the good that we had hoped for. Minds are opening up. Other unusual events will occur in the future, reaffirming all the attention we are devoting to the incarnate Master and this Mission as a whole. Changes will be necessary in response to the expansion of this Sahaj Marg path.

Life, in its perpetual movement, presents situations which must be dealt with – this is in the order of things. Nothing important can be achieved without difficulties; it is therefore necessary to work around them, and the best is brought about by divine grace and the constant attention of the Masters. A waiting period is sometimes required before the fulfilment of that which must be.

This is how it is. The best to all our abhyasis. They benefit from our ceaseless blessings.
