Tuesday, August 2, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

These writings create a connection among hearts united in remembrance of the incarnate Master, the bearer of our very special energies. Sahaj Marg conveys the best, the subtlest, creating a beautiful aura around the Mission, as wished for by the higher powers.

Everything takes its place, little by little, and comes to fruition according to their wishes. It is not always easy to achieve one's goal; each and every one is doing their best. There is no shortage of worries and challenges of all kinds, and it is truly difficult to escape them. No life is spared. All must face whatever comes and carry on as best they can. We help our aspirants in our own way; these actions are not futile, you can be sure. The spirit of Sahaj Marg sees far ahead and acts accordingly. Everything has its raison d'être, which means we cannot resolve everything. The best is nevertheless accomplished under our constant attention and fitting blessings. So it is.
