Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, August 8, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Your weariness is great, my dear daughter; all these years of struggle have not diminished this uncommon love that binds us. These thousands of messages are the fruit of it – what a precious treasure they represent. The future will confirm these words. Sahaj Marg is advancing and strengthening in its action. Time will give it an aura unimaginable today. Solid foundations have been laid, and they will be firmly consolidated with time. The Mission will know how to adapt to the changes of the future to better establish itself and help the greatest number of human beings on this Earth.

So much distress, so many problems of all kinds exist in certain places on this planet and, alas, we cannot act at our convenience to remedy them. Nevertheless, an important action is being taken to do what is best, and each one, in their own way, can contribute to it and act according to their own heart. Our blessings are active indeed; may all be strengthened and supported in their quest.The best for each one.
