Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, August 11, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

There is so much suffering on this Earth. It cannot be avoided; such are the laws of Karma. It is not easy for a human being to understand their meaning; this is how it is, one might say – what else can be done.

An incarnation is never simple; it is different for each person, yet it remains instructive and formative in many respects. Following a spiritual path helps one to better understand, to a certain extent, why things are as they are. From time immemorial, the winning over of hearts has turned out to be significant on this trajectory that is so decisive for all. There is no time to lose, it is so very precious. May all our brothers and sisters realise this and seize the opportunity offered to them to truly advance towards the Eden to which all aspire. Everything is being done towards this, for the good of each person; no one is forgotten, you can be sure, whatever may happen. To each one, the best possible, under our blessings.
