Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, August 28, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Your ardent soul is calling us, and it is heard according to our laws and the ancient ties that exist between us. Why not emphasise it once more; this fact lends a special appeal to these writings. They are not ordinary; what makes them special will be revealed in the future and render them even more valuable than they are today. Such changes will occur here below, vibrationally, and in many respects today's world will seem very distant. These comments may sound utopian, but big events are brewing — in the future, a general transformation will occur, giving humanity a completely different motivation for truly progressing, in the way that we understand progress. May our brothers and sisters rest assured that everything will proceed towards what is good and best for humanity — one that is in distress in many respects, without being able to get any real aid. May the thoughts of all our brothers and sisters converge towards the best, the good of all, especially as regards a general elevation in the level of spirituality. Everything is on track.

Blessings to all.
