Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, August 30, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

The receiving of these messages rests on very special bonds of the heart, hence their importance and the strength of their vibration. Their full subtlety will be brought to light in the future. They are nonetheless currently effective, for the good of all who read them. Each era in history provides, in broad outline, what is appropriate for the evolution of beings in search of the Divine.

A strong call is making itself heard, amidst all these disturbances that are so harmful to humans. We heed this call and ensure that we respond to it in our own way. Each of the Sahaj Marg Masters has his own personality and means of action. The incarnate Master works with the means given to him, and much more so than he thinks. This is how it is. May all be blessed and strengthened.
