Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 4, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

May peace and love envelop the entire Sahaj Marg Mission that is so dear to us. We cannot solve all problems, and this deeply saddens us. Divine laws must be upheld, for the good of all that lives on this Earth. What is good for humans is not always to their liking. So many trials must be endured to reach the goal, and at the same time the best is being developed. Our action constantly sees to the spiritual good of this Mission; it is evolving in its own manner, in a sure and very satisfying way – you can believe it. It is positioning itself in the best possible manner, and it will leave a great mark over time. What seems so simple today will, in the future, have an unprecedented impact in terms of the awakening of beings on their journey towards 'the Eternal'. Nothing in this domain can be put into words. May surrender and peace carry each of you towards the best that is, and especially the best that remains as the achievement of each incarnation. Sahaj Marg is a valuable asset, you can be sure.

Special blessings to our dear great son Kamlesh and to this whole Mission, carrying so many hearts that we look after with great love.
