Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 7, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Your heart calls to us. Many of our brothers and sisters follow these messages; they will not regret it. These writings transmit a special energy, as intended by the entire Hierarchy of Masters, who are very sensitive to the evolution of this Sahaj Marg Mission. Its Master, our very dear and great son Kamlesh, does not have an easy life; this contributes to his greatness and to the imperishable legacy he will leave over time.

Everything is counted, everything has its raison d'être; no path is easy, not even the greatest.

India is at the heart of the Sahaj Marg Mission; nevertheless, the Mission covers this world very broadly, where its roots run deep, so as never to leave it. This path will continue to amaze, as the future will show. Here and now the very best, in the realm of spirituality, is in the making. The divine power acts as it sees fit, and it greatly supports us. It is up to each one to appreciate their good fortune and to truly commit to this unique process. Our protection and blessings to each one, to consolidate the soundness and very special strength of this Sahaj Marg Mission.
