Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 11, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Forget this world, which is noisy and tormented in so many ways. This incessant noise disturbs human nature at subtle levels, where it should not. Isolation and meditation help to regain stability, a balance of the various bodies, which need a certain harmony between themselves. A spiritual way calls forth this peace within oneself; it favours a progression in this most exceptional journey. Sahaj Marg will have marked this century, in its own way but definitively.

The way is open; it is up to each one to commit to it and advance ever further ahead. The elevation of the soul is the noblest achievement, and it places the being in the best possible position. The egregore of this Mission is growing; it will leave its mark on these times, through the best it generates. So many beautiful souls find themselves there and blossom according to our wishes, opening up to the 'Immutable Peace' which carries them henceforth.

The best is yet to come; this Mission will continue to astonish, you can all be sure. Very special blessings to everyone on this day – a special one for all of us here who are attentive to it.
