Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, September 15, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

You can 'sing' love, one that will not change. An ardent heart keeps its treasure; it defies time and is found from life to life, for many experiences, in the service of the higher powers – of the Divine, as it is called. The achievement of the spiritual paths in this register has marked this world, and that will not change. Humankind needs to refer to a wisdom acquired long ago, one that has nourished souls in quest of the Divine. New spiritual paths have appeared to meet a deep longing of beings thirsty for this divine nectar, capable of satisfying in them a real and ardent need – a need emerging from past lives and forming the deep being, sensitive to this very special energy that corresponds to the true nature of each one. There lies the true treasure of humanity, one that will defy time. More solid than stone, it will remain the most beautiful success of human beings; so it is.

May all our brothers and sisters advance ever further in this sublime quest for the Divine – that is our most fervent wish. To all, peace and courage, to attain the best there is.
