Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, September 20, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, this incarnation will not have been ordinary: you dreamed only of travelling, and you have done so, largely limited by incessant trials and reduced to immobility, in the secrecy of your heart and through these daily contacts, for so many years. This is not common, as we have said often enough; it will remain, in history, one of the characteristic features of our Mission. Pace yourself, my dear daughter, it is necessary. Blessed are all these sisters who surround you and embellish your daily life despite difficulties that are endless and so well hidden from human eyes. We are aware of this, as you know, and we support you in our own manner. Be at peace and fortified, beyond your expectations.
