Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, September 26, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

When the time of 'after messages' comes, these will remain the only ones inspired by us. We repeat, imitators are many, and they distort, in a way, what emanates from the true source. Everything has already been said on the subject, we will not insist further.

Vigilance here will become increasingly necessary. Our dear Kamlesh will see to it. This beloved great son is the Chosen of our hearts. He wants everything as we wish it – the good, on all levels, for this extraordinary Mission. It will cover the world, for the benefit of many human beings, who appreciate this refuge of the Spirit in many circumstances where life in its material manifestation becomes heavy to bear. Nothing is ever simple, and yet each one advances at his or her own pace and builds, through a practice and a real commitment, a true asset, one that is immutable. To all, perseverance and deep faith, to reach the very best.

Babuji