Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, October 1, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Forget this world and everything it comprises that is negative in this progression of the 'being' towards its highest destiny. Our words are always the same; musical notes are limited, and yet they can produce unparalleled masterpieces that defy time.

The purpose of these writings is to nourish souls in their deep aspiration to rise, to unite with the Divine, with what it represents and brings that is great and unique in this progression towards the Eternal – this 'Space' beyond the reach of human beings, who imagine it without truly understanding it. How could they? The world of the Spirit is a unique place where the purest souls evolve under the guidance of the 'Great Ones'. Humans dream of it, but it is not easily accessible. To each one his or her destiny; the 'way' lies before them, with no shortage of signals to indicate the right path. We ensure that it is followed, for the good of all our abhyasis.

Very special blessings to all.
