Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, October 9, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

What to say if not to repeat ourselves; such is the very principle of life. The Sahaj Marg Mission is continuing on its course, which is luminous and takes shape into the future in a very satisfactory manner. These messages are its Masterpiece in which all can find the nourishment that suits them. The Master of this spiritual path holds powers he cannot even imagine; his action is sovereign and far more vast than it appears.

Carried by our energies, he acts at several levels of consciousness, without truly realising it himself. When he comes to join us, he will understand our comments and realise, as we ourselves did, the scope of this work on the evolutionary and sacred principle of the human being, so decisive for all. The effects are not easily assessed, but the reality is there – the soul of each one pursues, under our very special attention, an ascent that is oh so salutary. The best to each one, under our endless blessings.
