Saturday, September 11, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't lose all hope. This treatment will perhaps bring about some improvement. It is necessary to try everything, even if you know that recovery is not possible: suffering less would already be progress. For those who know you well, you set an example of courage. You also know that we do everything in our power to help you. We will leave off there for today."

Babuji