Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, October 31, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Life and death are only stages; numerous are they in this long journey towards the 'Eternal'. Each one of them determines the next; this subtle 'strategy' leads one on a very long course, to the best that one can attain. A real commitment bears precious fruit; everything is counted and followed with the utmost attention, as far as our faithful abhyasis are concerned. Nothing is lost of what constitutes an incarnation; each event has its significance, and yet most often the being does not dwell on it, for lack of attention and above all knowledge about this special aspect of his or her personality, in view of Eternity.

The human being is so small in front of it. The most well advised are quite helpless when the moment of this 'transition' comes, so awaited by some and so dreaded by others.

The mystery of life remains complete in this domain, none can claim to know everything and lead their lives as they please. Each person's life plan is very precise and cannot be circumvented.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light," it is said. Each step taken in this 'way of the heart' is decisive. May the best be, for all our abhyasis.

Unceasing blessings to all.
