Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, November 9, 2016 — 10:30 a.m.

You are the chosen scribe of our hearts. We unanimously chose you for this beautiful Mission which is so special, and whose importance will be revealed in the future.

This choice was not made in vain; there are many mediums, but your action goes well beyond appearances and will become clearer in the future. Sahaj Marg is destined to expand substantially, and these messages will play a major role, far beyond what their current role might suggest, in its apparent and great simplicity. The underlying action of these writings supports and confirms that of the living Master, whose action is so effective, generating very satisfactory results.

We fully support our dear Kamlesh. Nothing is simple for him, but you can be sure he is doing what is best. Time will reveal his greatness — he is the fruit of our respective actions which brought this path to the best that can be. His ability to manage events will produce results that will leave a very strong imprint on the Mission. Each of the Masters has played his part, and our dear and great son will confirm this action by bringing it to light.

To him, all our love, and our wishes for the continuation of his mandate, carried by excellence. This is how it is.
