Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, November 13, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Try to go beyond the limits of materiality, so as to let yourself be carried by this vibration of love in which your being is enraptured. In such an atmosphere, it is so easy to tune in to us and fully receive what is being offered, which is so distinctive. Our words are repeated tirelessly; such is the very principle of life in its uniqueness and creativity.

The Mission is evolving in its own way, carried by a very special vibration that distinguishes it from other paths. We can emphasise it here, these messages carry an energy from which surrendered hearts benefit fully. Everything happens in secrecy, where reason does not interfere. The true laws of life are unknown to the human being, who conceives of them in his or her own way, each one following their path as they can. Happy are those who, beyond material contingencies, integrate the principles of a spiritual approach, as we propose in Sahaj Marg. The egregore of this 'way of the heart' is resplendent; it delights all the beautiful souls that come to us in this celestial space where Sahaj Marg has a special place. It will expand more and more, attracting beings who did not know of Sahaj Marg while incarnated on this Earth.

'What must be will be.' This beautiful path will continue on its way for the good of the greatest number. So it is.
