Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, November 14, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Our dear Kamlesh is continuing on his journey, we help him in our own manner. Each one of us has been through many experiences necessary for our evolution as spiritual Masters. They are not always easy; this responsibility is sometimes heavy, but highly rewarding.

Such a distinction is an indescribable blessing. We retain within ourselves the profound mark of this very special commitment, one that is somewhat bewildering at first, but oh so rewarding in the long run. This choice is not made at random; it has long been planned in this long journey of reincarnations. This fact is not yet accepted by all. No matter, it is a reality, and decisive in each one's life. We are the fruit of our past lives. Whether we like it or not, we must come to terms with what we are, according to the laws of Karma. This Karma which is so mysterious – what is the source, the beginning of all things? On this initiatory journey, it is normal to ask oneself this question. Following a spiritual path like ours brings together events, temperaments, and leads people to make a step, the one that determines the rest of this journey. It is good to act accordingly; saving time is precious. Reaching the goal, isn't that the most important thing? To all, our special blessings for attaining the best possible.
