Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 17, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

A heartfelt wish, a sincere appeal, cannot be ignored. We strive to respond to it in our own manner. The histories of each of our abhyasis and the history of our entire Sahaj Marg Mission comply with laws, with divine principles of which the human being is not aware. Individuals access what they are able to, without being able to determine what their lives will be. Tomorrow represents the unknown. Karmic laws do not easily reveal themselves; only time reveals these laws and can clarify their requirements.

This is the situation for human beings, hence the need to surrender in order to truly progress and detach oneself from that which is useless and which too often calls out to a person. Human beings lead their lives as they are able; happy are those who devote themselves to truth, to what is accessible to them as they proceed along a spiritual path capable of broadening their horizon of knowledge — the knowledge we advocate on this path where real work is carried out on each one. This fact is a blessing; many hearts come and unite with this effective and redeeming movement that is so very blessed by the higher authorities.

To all, faith and courage in coping with the uncertainties of life. Everything has its raison d'être and bears fruit; there lies the essential thing. May all be blessed and strengthened in their quest.
