Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, November 20, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Regain the serenity necessary for receiving the messages, and let yourself be carried by the powerful flow of our love. Your love allows for this feat — namely, an impressive number of messages accumulated over the years. Such a surrender supported by love is not commonplace, so why not highlight it once again. This celestial manna will leave its mark on our Mission for a very long time.

We are working to help our brothers and sisters in many ways; whether visible or not, these ways manifest themselves unfailingly and for good reasons. So many aspects are to be considered in such an undertaking. Our purpose is to nourish hearts with a special transmission supported by texts that are surely repetitive, but necessary for the evolution of each person on this uncommon journey. The apparent simplicity of Sahaj Marg conceals well the many positive aspects of the method. A day will come when they will be revealed to the eyes of humans. The time of enlightenment is not for tomorrow, but it is being prepared and we are working towards it.

This is how it is. Blessings to all.
