Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, November 22, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Let this 'love song' remain in your heart and not weaken; such songs are the most beautiful, and time holds them in its memory for good reasons. Here, joy and love complement each other. We love to hear it, as so many complaints rise towards us — complaints that we cannot appease as we would like to.

This world is not idyllic — far from it. It meets the cosmic requirements whose laws are completely beyond current human knowledge. We are preparing a future that is better aligned with the evolution that will characterise the world. Everything is being put into place very slowly on this Earth; it is advancing at the desired pace, as is required to facilitate what will follow. Cleaning and purifying are essential. This world is bogged down in an unprecedented tangle of negativity; one day, everything will resume its place according to the standards required for a long-awaited and planned evolution. The saying goes that what must be will be. The Sahaj Marg way is working accordingly in its own manner, sowing in hearts this little seed, a particle of peace and love capable of promoting an expansion of consciousness in the many hearts that thirst for the Divine. This fact is unprecedented; all this will fall into place at the right time. It is not easy to imagine the future. The divine power will provide for it in due course.

This is how it is.
