Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, November 23, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Your fervour does not weaken; it calls to us without fail. This story of messages is not ordinary, and one day it will appear in all its beauty. We are sensitive to such a heartfelt engagement and to this love which not only does not weaken but grows with the passing days, creating this heavenly manna whose importance will reveal itself to the hearts of our brothers and sisters. Caught in the continual movement of life, many are not aware of the importance of the messages. It does not matter, as time does its work and the importance always manifests at the appropriate time when necessary. These writings are in a special genre; they constitute a precious element in the history of our Mission — a prime asset, one might say. Nothing is done without reason when desired by the higher powers. They alone can predict whether something is important or not. May love always carry this Mission of the heart to the height of its achievement here below. We are working accordingly; that is the main objective.

May all be blessed and strengthened in their quest for the Divine.
