Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 22, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

All this turbulence concerning 'your succession' is not new; we are not there yet. Our dear son Kamlesh will be inspired in due time, to enable him to discern what is right or wrong. This frenzy is not new. For your part, you did not ask for anything; our contacts began even before you became an abhyasi, with no other intentions than to respond to a call from the heart. The reading of Reality at Dawn was enough to connect your heart to ours, in a definitive way and for good reasons. Is it not said here, "What is to be will be"!

Dear soul, enjoy these blessed moments which are then felt by our dear brothers and sisters who are truly invested in this initiatory journey, one that brings many results – most often hidden, but real in their action. You are and will remain the medium, having opened the way of this long journey of messages which is oh so blessed by the Hierarchy of 'Sahaj Marg', this way that is so dear to us all. Its action will become increasingly clear and will constitute a real step forward in the understanding of these phenomena regarding a communication of this kind.

Blessings to all.
