Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, December 23, 2016 — 10:30 a.m.

The messages that are being received elsewhere do not comply with our wishes; human imagination has always resulted in such events — we are repeating this for our dear son Kamlesh. These writings are, and will remain, unique. The human being has always behaved in this manner. Similar occurrences — false Bibles, Korans, and writings coming from Great Masters of the past — have been wrongly reproduced, a fact which is deplorable; alas, this is how it is. These messages will not be spared from such fate, as the present already demonstrates. The quantity of these writings is unique; we wish them long life and a very satisfactory impact on hearts that are in need of the Divine. May the best come about, under our ceaseless blessings.

This is how it is.
