Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 24, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

This journey of messages has been very long and rewarding for many of our brothers and sisters, and a true asset for our Mission. It will remain the only one of its kind – this has to be made clear once again. The reality of these writings will become apparent one day, for the good of the Sahaj Marg Mission and all brothers and sisters who are truly engaged in this initiatory process. The word is not too strong; it is appropriate to what is and will come to be in the future, in times when the spiritual can take on its true place. Humanity cannot continue to stagnate in this manner. The divine power will know how to remedy the situation when the moment comes. So many things are being accomplished and prepared in secrecy – notably, an unprecedented open-mindedness concerning a most subtle approach to the Divine. Our path is intended for that; it enables an advancement that is genuine, although not sensational in its diverse aspects. Everything has its raison d'être, here below, where Sahaj Marg is making its way in hearts. The divine seed always generates the best – our brothers and sisters who have come to join us can assess its effects.

To all, peace and serenity at this time of year's end, whatever the context may be. To all of you, the best, under our special blessings.
