Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 29, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Everything changes, everything passes, except for these meetings of the heart which have been taking place again and again for such a long time. Therein lies a beautiful story. When the heart inspires it, in a certain way, it has no end.

It will remain unique in our Mission; such are the laws, those that concern us here.

These writings will accompany our dear son Kamlesh, and he will be able to refer to them when necessary. We help him in the best way we can with his heavy task. He is truly up to the mark, and this makes us happy. We have let him soar, to then better guide him when necessary. Nothing is ever simple, and human beings sometimes complicate things which need not be complicated. Times are changing. Imperceptibly, the future is being put into place – what it will be – in general, and also for our Mission. In this area, it is proper to support what can be facilitated. We see to the welfare of the Mission with great care. Its impact in the future will be important. This way of the heart, which started small, will stretch its wings for the good of a large number of brothers and sisters.

Becoming aware of the need to work towards an expansion of consciousness is a true advancement, one that we ardently support. Happy are the brothers and sisters who are genuinely committed; they will not regret it. So it is.

Babuji