Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, January 2, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Let us continue on this extraordinary journey of messages; these writings bring, and will leave over time, a very special image to this way of the heart. As the days pass, this path nourishes people's hearts and moreover manages to lead them imperceptibly to a satisfactory level. Repetition is necessary here below; isn't everything built in this spirit? Every day the same movements are made and the same words are repeated tirelessly. It cannot be otherwise — what matters is what emerges from this process.

Everything is being put in place, imperceptibly preparing the era of the future. It will be different in many respects. Very slowly it is taking shape, in terms of its objectives and the good it can provide to human evolution and beyond. All existing kingdoms will also have to adapt to the need for a general evolution. Everything cannot continue to stagnate in this way; the higher powers work in their own manner, with discernment and efficiency. In this future, Sahaj Marg will have a special place, and it will be increasingly appreciated. Nothing in this world is done without good reason, at least concerning benefits that can promote the spiritual evolution of today's world, one that is still far from a general state of grace. Let's not dream; even if the best is put in place, perseverance will be needed, and in more ways than one. Be that as it may, the higher will shall prevail; this is how it is.
