Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 6, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

All those who are helping you on this path — one that is so special for you — will not regret it; one day or another they will see the fruits of it. Each person has his or her own life and karma; such is the principle of reincarnation whereby everything is governed by divine laws, which do not correspond to human aspirations. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être? Why not repeat it again and again. Each message is a pearl on this sacred necklace that provides to readers much more than it would seem. The number of these messages is so impressive. Being unique, they will leave their mark on this Mission for a very long time. In the future, a chosen place will be reserved for them.

Change is being felt in our Mission. In a certain manner, it is adapting to present times under the guidance of the current Master, who is fully committed to this extraordinary process. We guide him in our own way; we assist him — shall we say — with much love. All those who are committed to the service of this Mission receive special attention from us. Each person is doing their level best according to their heart and their personal capabilities. Serving in a state of utmost surrender denotes a potential, a special gift that naturally offers itself to the power of the Spirit, that which operates here for the good of the greatest number.

To all, our very special blessings on this day that is so very blessed.
