It is difficult to follow a spiritual way with great rigour. The holy door is narrow; it is not easy to go through it. Its access requires more and more subtlety. Be vibrant with love, play this card, let it be your 'open sesame'! We would love to see you in this magic and luminous circle, ecstatic, in the face of so much beauty. Your progress is real, do not doubt it; don't be impatient... be only surrendered in the face of the divinity. You should see yourself achieving the unachievable, even if it seems to you distant and inaccessible. Believe in your Master, trust him completely, he will not disappoint you."
