Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, February 26, 2017

My dear daughter, this very difficult passage is trying for you, this force that drives you is generated by an extraordinary love. United with our hearts you are, and for such a long time that this ritual is part of your life; it will occur again one day in another manner to help our dear and great son Kamlesh.

May he benefit from it for a long time for the good of a great number, as intended by the higher power.

Very special blessings for all our brothers and sisters.
