Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, February 27, 2017 – 5:00 p.m.

This time slot is not usual, and yet it presents itself this way at our convenience, to maintain this precious thread between our hearts. The messages have become a very rare asset in our Mission, and they will remain so, you can be sure. In the future, they will become the main symbol of Sahaj Marg. All is well, except for this additional difficulty for you, on top of what is already there. Remain confident; we are by your side.

Be blessed, my dear daughter.
