Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, March 25, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Nothing is easy for you in these difficult moments; love carries you daily and helps you to overcome incessant difficulties. This long thread between our hearts connects us with the hearts of our brothers and sisters. These messages will have marked a blessed era, one in which Sahaj Marg has taken off. Its foundations are very solid, and they will mark a special time when everything is being set up definitively and for a very long time to come. This high place of Sahaj Marg that is currently being built will be a highly charged location, vibrationally; entities who have influenced Sahaj Marg will converge there and contribute a considerable aura to it. Everything comes in its own time according to the higher will.

Ceaseless blessings to all.
