Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, April 9, 2017 — 10:30 a.m.

My dear daughter, all these years of faithfulness and full commitment of the heart are very commendable. Hasn't everything been said already? These writings will remain over time, constituting a treasure for our Mission. Others will come afterwards, but they will not emanate from us — this is to be considered once and for all.

Time does its work, and our dear son Kamlesh manages this Mission brilliantly; he will know how to give it essential elements, meeting the demands of the times to come. Its action will be decisive in many respects; it will always be supported and guided in the best way to act according to the requirements of the moment.

The Sahaj Marg Mission will continue its course, and changes will occur that are necessary for a planned evolution. Everything is for the best — happy are those who follow this way of the heart, as it produces real benefits. To all, peace and serenity to go towards what is essential, that which is aimed for here.

Special blessings, conveyed by an extraordinary love.
