Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 27, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Hasn't everything been said, though repetitions are necessary – why not work differently. These messages will defy time, as in the other paths that have marked this world – the essence of a teaching permeates hearts and reverberates according to divine plans, for the general good. Our path of Sahaj Marg will not be forgotten, it will remain an important spiritual achievement; constructive elements will remain in the collective memory, for good reasons.

May all our brothers and sisters focus on the essential and keep alive in themselves this sacred flame that results from sincere practice and commitment.

To all, peace and serenity, to reach the best possible level.
