Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, May 6, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Sahaj Marg is progressing in its own manner; it satisfies many hearts through its simplicity and its extraordinary action. The future will grant it the appropriate glory; its results will be exemplary. It is very gratifying to feel supported in a process like this, where the aspiration of the soul is strongly emphasised. Time is counted and precious; each step leads to the goal, to the fullness of the Spirit. Such plenitude is decisive in one's life. Moving towards it and taking full advantage of the states it gives — bliss, among others — isn't this the very best? All human beings are advancing in this search; isn't it the height of happiness? To all, perseverance and success; there lies the deep aspiration of each person.

Special blessings to all.
