Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 10, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Spiritual life brings moments of deep and lasting joy. They leave in the heart imprints that transform a terrestrial existence, for good reason. From life to life, these attainments come together, and they alone constitute the true good of an incarnation. Sahaj Marg has a specific role; it represents a true spiritual approach, constituting in itself an important aspect. The wisdom of the seeker can flourish here and create a satisfactory environment, leaving space for the effects of grace. This grace carries the aspirant; it helps him or her in its most subtle effects.

Do our abhyasis truly realise what they are allowed to acquire over time! No matter – what must be, is and will be carried more and more by divine grace.

Sahaj Marg, in its profound action, is unique, shall we say. The future will be able to determine the effects and highlight the results, for the good of all our abhyasis. May the best be for all, under our ceaseless blessings.
