Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 17, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you can well believe that this long journey of messages has created a strong and precious bond between our hearts. Meeting each other again will be a great joy; with us, you will witness from here the advancement of this Mission that you love, while contributing to its expansion across the world. You will thus be able to give your best to your dear and great son Kamlesh; your destinies have been crossing for a very long time and complement each other in their respective actions. You will meet again in Hyderabad, each one of you being active in your own manner. Both of you have a profound wish to serve this beautiful way of Sahaj Marg whose future expansion will be considerable. This will delight your hearts as it has delighted ours for a long time now. It is so rewarding to participate in such an achievement; these messages will inspire many people in the future — you will observe this gladly. What you heard yesterday is a beginning.

Blessed are all our abhyasis in their respective actions.
