Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, May 19, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

In you lie peace and harmony, that which is established each day in these much-awaited contacts. Years go by, words repeat themselves, and yet these writings are appreciated by many of our abhyasis. They will remain over time a testament to what currently exists in this spiritual way.

In the midst of the Sahaj Marg Mission a sacred edifice is being built where many yearning hearts find 'the way', one that uplifts and does not disappoint. Time will justify these comments; the favourable effects of Sahaj Marg will leave in the future a very significant imprint carrying multiple benefits.

We want the best for all our brothers and sisters; the future is known to us, and this allows us to act accordingly for the good of all.

May peace and harmony reign here below and fortify this path of spiritual excellence.
